29 cm Warming Drawers built-in

Keeping your culinary creations at the perfect temperature

Having put so much passion into your dinner-party creations, it makes sense that they should be served at the perfect temperature, just like in the finest restaurants.

Our warming drawers help you to ensure your food is always served on hot plates, just like in the finest restaurants. They are also invaluable for keeping food warm while you're busy perfecting a particularly tricky sauce or simply entertaining your guests. This KitchenAid warming drawer can hold up to twelve plates and keep your dishes at a maximum temperature of 70°C for as long as you need. Made from easy-to-clean stainless steel.
